Long Handicap: Captains Run 9 - 11, Leaving Home 9 - 11, Hume Lough 9 - 8, Yourholidayisover 9 - 5

ATR VERDICT: CAPTAINS RUN posted his best effort for quite some time when second over C&D earlier this month and could go close once more if repeating that level of performance here. A mark of 77 is there to be taken advantage of, and Johnny Farrelly's charge is preferred ahead of Lots Of Luck, who won on heavy ground at Taunton when last seen in March but might need this reappearance outing. Another Tuco has dropped to a tempting mark of 99 and will likely be handed a positive ride by Adrian Heskin despite falling here 10 days ago.

Top Tip: CAPTAINS RUN (9)

ATR VERDICT: TIME VOYAGE is rated 78 on the Flat and was deemed good enough to run in Listed company in that sphere just 36 days ago for John Quinn. The three-year-old clearly has an engine, and the booking of champion jockey Brian Hughes suggests that the son of Raven's Pass has schooled well in recent weeks. Gold Desert showed signs of promise on the level for Richard Hannon and makes some appeal now with Oliver Greenall, while Mesmeric could prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: DARLING MALTAIX took a three-runner Ludlow contest by an emphatic 53 lengths earlier this month and the in-form seven-year-old could strike once again while the ground remains good and conditions are in his favour. Jaboticaba is another who appreciates a sound surface and skipped off the ground to score when returning from a break at Warwick recently. Leapaway is 7lb higher than when comfortably accounting for the handy Return Ticket to taste success at Hexham last month, while Jack Savage's 7lb claim brings the useful Locker Room Talk right into calculations.

Top Tip: DARLING MALTAIX (3)

Watch out for: JABOTICABA (8)

Long Handicap: Wild Desire 9 - 11

ATR VERDICT: SMITHSCORNER won the corresponding event in 2018. The Kadeed gelding was market leader to exploit a favourable hurdles mark at the Harvest festival in Listowel, but he came up short when fourth behind Whereyounow. Conor Orr's five pound claim here is a boon to the chances of the County Cork trained contender, and he can get it done back at a venue where he's proven in the past. First time in a handicap hurdle, Elite Trooper Grey is entitled to be there or thereabouts, whilst there are few others with each-way claims as well.

Top Tip: SMITHSCORNER (6)

Watch out for: ELITE TROOPER GREY (8)

ATR VERDICT: VERDANA BLUE has a fine record over this course and distance, claiming this prize in 2018, and conditions look perfect for the former Christmas Hurdle winner to make a bold bid here. She has been in fine form on the Flat this summer, placing at Royal Ascot and in the Ebor at York, and could prove tough to beat reverting to timber. Silver Streak won this 12 months ago and the admirable seven-year-old could be the one to capitalise on any chinks in the selection's armour, while Diego Du Charmil is a solid operator, who switches between fences and hurdles with ease, and can't be ignored considering the form of Paul Nicholls.

Top Tip: VERDANA BLUE (6)

ATR VERDICT: VOCALISER arrives having won on both his outings this season at Bangor and Olly Murphy's gelding is capable of handling a 12lb rise for his most recent success. Jean Genie showed promise over fences in France, finishing fourth on his final start there at Auteuil before joining Tim Vaughan for two hurdle outings, and he is of interest with the weight-for-age allowance, while Oxwich Bay can return to form as he may have found the ground too quick at Sedgfield last month.

Jack Yeats chased home a couple of useful operators when third on his hurdles bow at Limerick and requires plenty of respect on debut for Stuart Coltherd, while Brian Hughes links up with Brian Ellison's Highland Sky, a two-time winner on the Flat for David Simcock.

ATR VERDICT: FOXY JACKS got no further than the third on his chase debut at Limerick last Sunday. There was money about for the Dermot Desmond-owned and Mouse Morris-trained Fame And Glory gelding on that occasion, and hopefully he'll avoid any bad mistakes this time. His performances in the bumper and hurdles arena have shown the six-year-old to be a nice prospect for the months ahead. Coko Beach now tackles the larger obstacles for the first time, on his reappearance after a ninth placing in the Coral Cup at Cheltenham in March. He obviously has the ability to beat these rivals, and it should be revealing to see how he moves in the market. Daybreak Boy has a little squeak too.

ATR VERDICT: SUNRISE RUBY was an easy winner of her most recent start at Newton Abbot when proving to be a cut above the opposition, having appeared to enjoy the change to front-running tactics, and Nicky Henderson's mare can make it two wins on the bounce. The Domino Effect ran well to finish third over C&D in February and he has to be respected along with Zarrar, who placed at Ludlow earlier in the month.

Top Tip: SUNRISE RUBY (4)
