ATR VERDICT: SWISS CONNECTION has been in consistent form in his two outings since returning from a break and his most recent second at Newcastle suggested he is more than capable of going one better on this occasion. Red Walls is back down to his last winning mark having not run up to scratch on his last couple of starts, while Kath's Toyboy appears to be fairly handicapped based on his form last year.

ATR VERDICT: The progressive RINGO STARLIGHT looked unlucky not to score when a fast-finishing second at Southwell last week, finding himself poorly placed, and the Amy Murphy-trained gelding is fancied to notch up his third all-weather win today. Exceling registered her second success over course and distance last time and is a danger, while Thomas Equinas drops in trip and also merits consideration on his handicap debut.

ATR VERDICT: HIGHEST AMBITION wasn't at his best when fifth over C&D on New Year's Day, but this appears to be a suitable opportunity for him to get off the mark with connections opting for first-time cheekpieces. The drop in trip on yard debut is an interesting move for Light Of Thunder having been last seen running over 1m2f, while Tantastic and Ubahha complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: SIR GREGORY catches the eye on just his second start for Michael Appleby, after shaping better than the result suggests from an outside berth at Wolverhampton on his latest outing. Much better drawn this time, the Equiano gelding is tipped to step up and get the better of Won Love, who didn't get the rub of the green when well fancied at Lingfield last time. Tom Mix still has the scope to progress and cannot be discounted either.

ATR VERDICT: Mondammej has kept on improving in recent months and the return to the all-weather has seen him win two of his last three outings. That said, he faces a stiff opposition in the shape of FERNANDO RAH, who was an impressive winner over C&D on his penultimate start and the drop back in trip on this occasion might see him progress further. Caroline Dale has been in consistent form and a recent wind operation may yield some more improvement.

ATR VERDICT: Ann Duffield seems to have found the key to new recruit COLLABORATING, who must hold every chance if building upon his most recent second at Newcastle, for which he has been raised 2lb. The drop in trip may only aid the five-year-old's cause as he looks to fend off the challenge of recent Newcastle winner Kingson and Allowed, who shaped well on her handicap debut at Wolverhampton last month. Others to note include By Jove, Firewater and Gertcha.

Street Kid arrives having won two of his last three outings on the all-weather and he commands the utmost respect along with Sir Maxi, who has gone close on his last couple of starts.

ATR VERDICT: LIBBY AMI has been quite the acquisition for the in-form Ivan Furtado stable, having won over C&D on her penultimate start and then following that with a creditable third on her most recent outing. The booking of Tom Marquand can only enhance her claims here as she looks to gain a fifth career victory and could do so at the main expense of fellow course winner Homer Stokes, who must bounce back from an uninspiring display at Newcastle. Runner-up here last Friday, Visibility holds claims along with Jewel Maker.

He was highly tried on a couple of occasions after that before taking advantage of a drop in grade on his last couple of starts at Wolverhampton and Newcastle. Arlo's Sunshine produced another solid effort when third at the Essex venue on his latest outing and looks next best, while Sovereign Moon responded well to first-time blinkers when scoring under these conditions last time and is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: This race may be dominated by last-time-out winners VESPASIAN and Bare Necessity, with the former narrowly preferred on his first run at 6f, having shown plenty of speed when making all over a furlong further at Lingfield earlier this month. The experience gained from her debut clearly did Bare Necessity the world of good judging by her Wolverhampton success two weeks ago, where she had plenty in hand, and the daughter of Kodi Bear should prove a worthy opponent. North Lincoln gives the impression he still has more to offer and looks best of the rest.

Top Tip: VESPASIAN (1)

ATR VERDICT: Neither Blazer Two or RESET BUTTON can be faulted for their consistency, having both finished runner-up on each of their last three starts. Handed a kinder draw than his main rival, preference is for the latter with the excellent David Probert taking over in the saddle and conditions to suit once more. Liva is likely to need further having won over two miles here recently, while Eltham Palace remains a maiden through 15 starts despite running well last time out at Chelmsford.

ATR VERDICT: The booking of Hollie Doyle could well prove the key to getting BORN TO SIRE off the mark at the 23rd time of asking, having gone close the last twice, including over C&D. Essgee Nics hinted at a return to the winner's enclosure when third at Chelmsford earlier in the month, and his record here is another major plus. Beau Geste is another likely to be thereabouts along with the unexposed Little Hercules, who is open to improvement.

Long Handicap: Arpina 8 - 11

ATR VERDICT: Surrey Territories is bound to be popular here thanks to a 3lb pull at the weights with the reopposing STORM ASSET, who beat the aforementioned rival by a length when they met over this trip at Lingfield earlier in the month. Michael Wigham's charge is taken to come out on top again at a track that favours those who race prominently. Sandie's Dream is likely to enter the reckoning as well if building on a career-best effort at Southwell recently, while Isobel Moore is another to note.
