ATR VERDICT: OSCAR MONTEL gets the vote having struck at Worcester over 2m7f, keeping on strongly to suggest that this longer trip will pose no problems. He has gone up 4lb for that win, which seems fair, and merits close consideration. Super Citizen must be feared having run on well in third at Limerick over a similar distance, while Dee Star could also be thereabouts.

ATR VERDICT: BROKEN QUEST was only just denied a fourth consecutive win at Perth earlier this month, but was not disgraced finishing half a length behind Minella Trump in that contest. Sizing Cusimano can be feared having kept on to win in emphatic style by 27 lengths at Newton Abbot last month, while Destrier also enters calculations stepping significantly up in trip.

Long Handicap: Neo Soul 8 - 6, Jon Riggins 8 - 4

ATR VERDICT: A competitive renewal of the race won by Urban Beat 12 months ago from just 3lb lower. He has to be respected once again but preference is for the lightly-raced EROSANDPSYCHE, who really caught the eye when flying home on his stable debut for Paddy Twomey, suggesting he should be ideally suited by a strong pace to aim at here. The unexposed Ano Syra was an impressive winner over C&D last time and is hard to rule out along with fellow recent winners Moss Tucker and Tees Spirit.

Long Handicap: Going Mobile 10 - 1, Casamari Abbey 9 - 9

ATR VERDICT: The gutsy Going Mobile narrowly held on from FOURTH OF JULY at Hexham earlier this month but the latter deserves extra credit considering his saddle had slipped, and he now looks equipped to cash in off a favourable mark. Brelan D'As bounced back to form with a game placed effort over further here last month and is clearly well treated right now, even if the drop back in trip may not be ideal.
