ATR VERDICT: LONGSHANKS went close to rewarding his supporters when second in a similar race over this course and distance 25 days ago and can go one place better off just 2lb higher. Stratton Oakmont has finished as runner-up on his last three starts and may yet again fill that role, while I See The Sea is dangerous to rule out now upped in trip for his handicap debut.

ATR VERDICT: Now that the penny has dropped for BILLY BOI BLUE over hurdles after a taking performance over this distance at Hereford in January, there should be plenty more to come from the son of Blue Bresil. Act Of Authority may have disappointed when a short-priced favourite last time out, but he is better judged on his penultimate success at Bangor, while Tommy Time cannot be ruled out either.

ATR VERDICT: Having finished second in four of his five previous races, the consistent KING OF THE LAKE is presented with a good opportunity to finally get his head in front. The Jeremy Scott-trained gelding has undergone a wind procedure since his most recent start and, dropped back down in trip, there are solid reasons to give the six-year-old another chance. Tiny Tetley is shortlisted after an improved effort over 3m at Taunton last month, while previous point-to-point winner Patriotik commands respect on just his second start under Rules.

ATR VERDICT: Turned out again quickly after an easy success at Hexham last week, RAFFLES WONDER looks the one to beat again and can follow up under a 7lb penalty for in-form connections. Success may come at the main expense of Lone Soldier, who showed up well for a long way at Southwell over further before fading late on. Hide Out and V Twelve have the form to get involved as well.

Stormy Flight won over this course and distance on his penultimate start and makes the shortlist off just 3lb higher. Iconic Muddle can also play a big role, with the drop back down in trip not expected to be an issue.

ATR VERDICT: A respectable second at Catterick last time out, CARRIGEEN CASTLE will appreciate a return to this track having bolted up over C&D on his penultimate start. Micky Hammond's charge is now 10lb higher, but he should have too much for Heartbreak Kid, who is capable on his day though is winless since last May. ATR VERDICT: FEIVEL clearly benefitted from the application of blinkers on his penultimate start, when beating a subsequent winner over C&D, and he gets the nod to go one place better than his second last time. Paricolor caught the eye when finishing third in a competitive Cheltenham handicap over 2m5f in November and, if bouncing back to that form, he holds solid claims. Front View also has the ability to play a hand in a race of this nature.

ATR VERDICT: Point-to-point winner CLOUDY FLAMINGO was the subject of market support on his handicap debut last month, when weakening into fifth late on. That said, easing in grade and sporting blinkers for the first time, it may pay to be in a forgiving mood with him. Desert Fortune was making her debut for Venetia Williams when a running-on second over 2m4f at Leicester last month and, stepping up in trip, she can give the selection most to think about. Lightonthewing ran out a game winner over 3m1f at Wincanton earlier this month, but he is not certain to back that up off 4lb higher.

Long Handicap: Oliver's Island 9 - 13, Cantalupo Bella 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: FAINCHE arrives here on the back of a close second over 3m1f at Carlisle last month and a 3lb rise in the ratings may not be enough to stop her from going one better here. That said, Oliver's Island has also been knocking on the door of late and is an obvious threat to the selection. Long Handicap: Hi Hoh Tonto 8 - 10

ATR VERDICT: Aces Wild (awarded second) was badly hampered by Hi Hoh Tonto (demoted to third) as they filled the frame behind Basholo (winner) over this course and distance eight days ago, and the lightly-raced gelding has a feasible chance of turning the form around with the penalised victor on these revised terms. However, this is competitive and MUNIFICENT appeals most off 5lb below his last winning mark. A three-time C&D winner, the selection is highly effective in this grade and gets the nod.

ATR VERDICT: The betting market will be informative and the likes of Marmaduke Lemon, Viennoise and Shelbourne are all suggested as potential improvers to seriously consider if they are supported. However, ARCTURIAN rattled home in an impressive manner when emerging as a surprise winner of a similar race at Kempton in December and, assuming he can deliver the same turn of foot under a 7lb penalty, the Richard Hughes-trained gelding can follow up.

ATR VERDICT: HEARITFORTHEBOYS made an excellent start to life with new connections when a creditable third from the front at Kempton and, with improvement expected, he can bounce back to winning ways off a workable mark. Stepping up in trip looks like a big plus for Fengari, who has not been in action since last August, while Twenty Bob is another who should appreciate going up in distance. Handicap debutant Mammy and Lady In Havana are capable of being in the mix too.
