ATR VERDICT: Shout contested a warm novice at Windsor on his debut before getting off the mark over C&D three weeks ago but, although further progress is likely, the penalty will make things tougher. With that in mind, a chance can be taken on REDORANGE, who has shown a similar level of form across his two starts and a step up to 6f could hold the key. Others to note include Nascimento and Gesundheit.

Top Tip: REDORANGE (9)

ATR VERDICT: Alice's Impact backed up her C&D victory two starts ago with a solid runner-up effort in this grade at Carlisle last time and she should remain competitive off the same rating. However, the vote goes to KING SHARJA, who capitalised on a career-low mark over track and trip last month and he may kick on now that he has got his head in front. Rum Runner is another to keep an eye on.

Top Tip: KING SHARJA (1)

ATR VERDICT: It's not often that Aidan O'Brien will send a horse to this venue, but he is one from three when doing so and THE PARTHENON can improve that record. Pitched into Group 3 company on his debut, the son of Kingman was far from disgraced, before going on to break the maiden comfortably at Gowran. He holds some lofty entries, too, and is expected to have too much for New Century, who chased home the smart Al Qudra in a Listed contest at Ascot. Luther has a bit to find but is by no means ruled out.

Long Handicap: Amerigo Vespucci 8 - 7

ATR VERDICT: With a lack of recent winning form in this field, it may pay to side with Ann Duffield's CLOTHERHOLME. He was sent off favourite over C&D last month and only lost by a nose after being caught on the line, despite being carried left by a rival a furlong out and being hampered again late on. He could well gain compensation off just 1lb higher in the handicap, with Queens Road Revue and Twilight Jazz potential dangers.

ATR VERDICT: MEET ME IN MERAKI relished the quick ground when staying on well to score a shade cosily over this trip at Chepstow last month and, with conditions to suit again, he looks to have a good chance of defying a 5lb rise to complete a double. First-time blinkers could help Forest Hills and he is on a fair mark, while Hey Big Spender ran well in defeat over 1m at Newbury latest and she's respected stepping up in trip.

ATR VERDICT: The Johnston yard have won two of the four runnings of this race to date, suggesting a big run from Urban Sprawl. However, he hasn't been at his best so far this season and may have to give way to RESPECTFUL. Twice a winner last year, he returns from wind surgery here for his second start since being gelded and could be sitting pretty off bottom-weight. Mudamer is the only C&D winner in the field and he could be the one to chase them home.

ATR VERDICT: Rainbows Edge has a perfect record coming into this contest after she struck with ease under a penalty at Newmarket last time, and she looks well worth her place at this level. However, the vote goes to the more experienced FRANCOPHONE. Charlie Johnston's three-year-old was victorious in this grade at Goodwood two starts ago before finishing last in the Group 1 Pretty Polly at the Curragh. Sea Of Roses holds an obvious chance too.

ATR VERDICT: The vote goes to PALAZZO PERSICO, who appeared to relish the return to 10 furlongs when filling the runner-up spot at Nottingham recently. Ed Dunlop's charge was nudged up 2lb in the ratings for that display but, with further scope for improvement at this trip, he is taken to go one better. Sisterandbrother has proven largely consistent this campaign and is unlikely to be far away, although the unexposed Risen Again should benefit from a hike in distance and he could be the main threat.

ATR VERDICT: BRAINS drops back into claiming company for the first time since being picked up by Dick Donohoe out of a similar contest at Dundalk last November. He has been consistent for current connections in handicaps, winning at Roscommon in May and also being placed several times. This looks like a nice opportunity to bag another success. At the weights Cordouan looks like a big danger but he has been well held in recent runs in similar races. He is fitted with a visor now and that could conjure some improvement. Amanirenas won a claimer on her penultimate outing and is another to consider back in this grade.

ATR VERDICT: The form of DEL RAY's debut success has worked out well and, given that she had excuses when pitched into Listed company next time, Archie Watson's filly could bounce back under a penalty. That said, there are plenty of interesting newcomers that could give her something to think about, including Pinatubo filly Maybe Not. Ralph Beckett has his yard in fine form so it would come as no surprise were she to be involved, while others to note include Inquisition, Elwateen and Orchid.

ATR VERDICT: DIGNAM shaped nicely on his debut at Leopardstown last month and can step forward now. The Sea The Moon colt kept on in the closing stages when third to impressive winner Va Va Vroom and looked like he would improve from the experience. Stablemate Raven Darkholme gets a nice pull at the weights with Wayne Hassett taking off 5lb. She ran well, despite being green, when second at Galway on her debut. Mount Parnassus sets the standard off his mark of 87 but may be vulnerable to improvers. He is tried in cheekpieces now.

ATR VERDICT: The Eyes Have It bolted up on her debut at Yarmouth last month and she is an obvious starting point, despite having to shoulder a penalty, but it is DANCING SAPPHIRE that shades preference. Outpaced over 6f at Salisbury on her first start in May, Andrew Balding's string often come on for that initial experience and she could follow suit now stepped up in trip. Raheena sets the standard with an official rating of 79 and must enter calculations, while Angel Rose warrants a market check ahead of her racecourse bow.

ATR VERDICT: CITY OF YORK dead-heated for fourth in this grade at Newmarket last month and the son of Cityscape was dropped 1lb for that effort. David Simcock's four-year-old is a previous C&D winner and it would be no surprise to see him put his best foot forward in this contest. Dutch Kingdom (first) beat Ring of Light (third) in a class 5 event at Lingfield on his penultimate start and he can confirm that form to have a say, while Al Rufaa isn't one to write off at this level.

Top Tip: CITY OF YORK (4)

11 (6)		6-041	GRACIOUS LEADER 21 D b g Siyouni - Dame Du Roi	3 9 - 1	James Doyle R Varian	72

ATR VERDICT: Phoenix Passion completed the four-timer when dead-heating over C&D and he holds an obvious chance off 3lb higher. However, GRACIOUS LEADER may put an end to his winning sequence. Roger Varian's three-year-old justified short odds after being gelded on his handicap debut at Lingfield last month and could have plenty more to offer, so he can defy an 8lb rise. Nap Hand hit the frame at Windsor last time and completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: THE BAY WARRIOR has produced two solid efforts to hit the frame the last twice, including over 1m3f here on his penultimate start. Mark Usher's six-year-old remains on the same mark and could be the one to beat. Outgun only managed sixth at Newbury on his latest outing but he is an interesting contender up in trip off a 1lb lower rating. Of the remainder, Golden Dove makes most appeal.

ATR VERDICT: BUXTED TOO has a lot going for him with six wins over this sort of distance, five of those on the all-weather including one over track and trip. His latest win was on the Windsor turf in June off just 2lb lower and he clearly ticks a lot of boxes, though Luna Effect looks a big danger back up in trip on his second start for the Moore's. He may get the better of Rockit Tommy, who needs to recapture his three-year-old form.

ATR VERDICT: Anisoptera may prove popular here with her three C&D wins and running off exactly the same mark as her latest success in April 2023. She could surprise a few, but her recent form is not as good as the July second of SOPHAR SOGOOD, who ran on strongly over 1m6f at Wolverhampton. African Star drops in class and is worth monitoring in the betting market.

Top Tip: SOPHAR SOGOOD (4)

Watch out for: ANISOPTERA (2)
