ATR VERDICT: A confident vote goes to FLASH HARRY, who bumped into the now 102-rated Lady With The Lamp on his debut here last June. Gelded since and switched to Clive Cox, he could hardly have been more impressive when bolting up at Wolverhampton on his return last month. That performance sets a tough standard for the opposition to match and he is the one to beat under a penalty. Pianoforte and In The City can battle it out for second.

Top Tip: FLASH HARRY (2)

Watch out for: PIANOFORTE (1)

Long Handicap: Encourager 8 - 3

ATR VERDICT: GREY CUBAN may have been aimed at this by local trainer Hugo Palmer and, with two wins from four starts here, he could go well. He races off 2lb lower than last time while dropping in class, and may bounce back to form with that in mind. Castle Cove is interesting on his handicap debut and has been gelded since his Newbury fourth, while Light Speed might come out best of the rest.

Top Tip: GREY CUBAN (1)

Watch out for: CASTLE COVE (8)

5 (5)		65941-7	RAJA RAJA 28 b g Nathaniel - Veena	4 9 - 2	David Probert D M Simcock	82

ATR VERDICT: Absurde kept on well when third to Illinois and Al Qareem over a furlong shorter in the Group 3 Ormonde Stakes at Chester last month and, given he meets the runner-up on better terms, he must have a good chance. ALSAKIB is already a C&D winner after beating Al Qareem here in July last year and, if he improves for his reappearance following a gelding operation when fourth in the Yorkshire Cup, then this race is comfortably within range. El Cordobes is respected too.

Top Tip: ALSAKIB (3)

Watch out for: ABSURDE (2)

7 (6)		5-17	DANCE IN THE STORM 101 D b f Night Of Thunder - Strictly Dancing	3 8 - 10h1	Oisin Murphy A M Balding	80

ATR VERDICT: Brize Norton showed a big chunk of improvement after being gelded to shed his maiden tag at Kempton last month and needs to be taken seriously on his handicap bow. Spirit Of Farhh is respected after his runner-up effort behind Derby fifth Stanhope Gardens last time, but the vote goes to COSI BELLO. Charlie Fellowes' charge is unbeaten in two starts, justifying short odds under a penalty in good style at Kempton last time. With any amount of improvement to come, he could defy his opening rating of 93.

Top Tip: COSI BELLO (1)

Watch out for: BRIZE NORTON (6)

Long Handicap: Easy Peeler 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: DOUBLE RUSH is a sprinter on the upgrade and looks worth sticking with. The son of Blue Point won a competitive contest at Newmarket on his handicap debut and a 5lb rise looks fair given both the third and fourth have subsequently won. Marchogion also scored at Newmarket when beating American Style with a bit up his sleeve. He can confirm that form, while Clive Cox has won two of the last three renewals so Doncaster novice winner Fast Track Harry also enters calculations.

Top Tip: DOUBLE RUSH (8)

ATR VERDICT: STELLAR SUNRISE missed the break at Goodwood on his introduction, but showed plenty of pace to make up the lost ground and finish a creditable second. The son of Space Blues will be a lot wiser today and this flat 6f will suit Andrew Balding's charge. Lyrical Song would likely have finished closer than fifth at Pontefract with a clear run and he could be in the mix, while the newcomers Tactical Formation and Yy Nation should be noted for any significant support.

ATR VERDICT: PREVISE took a big leap forward from her debut effort to sprung an 80/1 surprise at Haydock in April and the daughter of Oasis Dream now competes in a handicap for the first time. The three-year-old is likely to have lots more to offer and could prove too good for these. Soho Square boasts a very similar profile as she struck at Newcastle on her second career outing and she needs to be taken seriously, along with Cradle Of Love.

Top Tip: PREVISE (4)

Watch out for: SOHO SQUARE (10)
