ATR VERDICT: GALACTIC GLOW was only beaten a length into second at Bath earlier in the month and the assessor may have been kind to leave his mark alone for that effort. If the eight-year-old remains in similar form, he could be the one to beat. Apodictique makes her first start for the Moore's stable and warrants a market check on her return from a long absence. Last-time-out winner Blue Yonder is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Miss Rainbow is looking for her hat-trick and is hard to ignore, despite carrying a 5lb penalty for a neck success at Catterick, but she will need to improve again to win this. CITY CAPTAIN looked as if he didn't see out the seventh furlong at Chelmsford when second but is better judged on his Pontefract victory over this trip and he could get back to winning ways. Ishe Worth Agamble is another to consider after his comfortable Doncaster success.

Top Tip: CITY CAPTAIN (9)

ATR VERDICT: Sunshine And Roses showed ability when fifth on her debut at Chelmsford earlier in the month and she could put that experience to good use. Piazza was sent off favourite for her racecourse bow but finished last of four at Salisbury. Therefore, the vote goes to BOSA NOVA, who changed hands for 100,000 pounds as a yearling and is a well-bred daughter of Churchill. This looks a winnable event and she could make an instant impression.

Long Handicap: Aighear 8 - 2

ATR VERDICT: In a race where the majority arrive with something to prove, it may pay to stick with AGATHON, who has come home in the first three on his last five starts and won on his only previous visit to this track when scoring by three-quarters of a length in May. He does need a career-best off this mark, but looks the most reliable of these. Fast Fred drops in class after a neck second at Thirsk and rates a serious rival, while Simon West has his horses in good form making dual hurdle winner Fabuleux Du Clos worthy of consideration.

Top Tip: AGATHON (3)

ATR VERDICT: ROMANOVICH made every yard of the running to go in by just under a length over 7f here last time and is just 4lb higher. John O'Shea's charge should have no issues with this extra furlong and he can complete a double. Diddy Man failed to supplement his Wolverhampton success when third at Nottingham last time, but that was still a good effort and he has to be respected. Onslow Gardens looks best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: Arkenstaar could only manage fourth at Hamilton on his most recent start, but he was dropped 2lb for that effort and lurks on an appealing mark. Even so, BELTANE looks the way to go. Mark Walford's six-year-old stumbled leaving the stalls and ran too badly to be true when well beaten in a stronger event at Hamilton last time. This drop in grade, along with a 2lb lower rating, makes him the one to beat. Blufferonthebus completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: CONNIE'S ROSE has a good record here with six course wins, the latest of which was in September off 5lb higher. She steps back up to 6f after a seventh here last month, and could get back to winning ways. Ballybaymoonshiner has yet to win on turf but sits at the bottom of the weights despite a win at Chelmsford last month and 3lb more may not stop him from going close, while Papabella could surprise a few.

ATR VERDICT: BELLASIO has filled the runner-up spot at Hamilton the last twice and goes off the same rating. Grant Tuer's four-year-old makes only his fifth handicap start and could take a step forward to score. Ey Up Its Jazz struck at Redcar prior to disappointing in a class 4 handicap at Doncaster when last seen and is an interesting contender on his return to the fray. Copper And Five is the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Gherkin could go close if he improves after weakening late on at Leicester on his first start since November. However, ENDOWED did well after stumbling at the start to finish third at Redcar off this mark recently and he is clearly well handicapped if he can get back to anything like his best form. Professor Tickle also makes the shortlist after his neck second at Brighton last month.
