ATR VERDICT: GREEK ORDER supplemented his Royal Hunt Cup fourth with a decent third at Sandown last month. Michael Bell's gelding looks to have a nice prize in him and, racing off an unchanged mark, he could be the one. The hat-trick seeking Skukuza arrives on the back of a Listed triumph at the Curragh and another bold showing looks assured. The son of Blue Point is feared most, ahead of Arisaig and Fifth Column.

ATR VERDICT: HAUNTED DREAM never recovered from being badly hampered when entering the final furlong in the Wolferton at Royal Ascot and that run is best forgotten. Better judged on his game success in this race 12 months ago, the son of Oasis Dream is fancied to go well. Fox Legacy has won two of his three starts for Andrew Balding and he is another key player. Previous course winners Liberty Lane and Godwinson are also considered.

ATR VERDICT: A return to class 6 company proved just the trick for recent Doncaster winner Lumenbourg and he cannot be dismissed in his current vein of form. However, a 6lb higher mark demands another career-best performance from the four-year-old and TEA SEA is slightly more compelling. Tony Carroll's charge has filled the runner-up spot on his last two outings and compensation could be on the cards. Cancan In The Rain is the pick of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: Costing 600,000 euros as a yearling, Godolphin clearly saw something in RISING POWER and the son of Wootton Bassett hasn't let them down so far with narrow wins at Newmarket and Sandown, both over a furlong shorter. He has to carry top-weight on his nursery debut but may well prove better than a handicapper in time. Penhallam held on well when dropped to this trip at Newbury and he might get the better of Try Storm Cat in the race for second.

ATR VERDICT: Having posted her best effort to date when finishing second at Apr 11 days ago, TANJEN could be poised to open her account. Tim Easterby's filly is 2lb well-in and she should take plenty of stopping if proving as effective on her Tapeta bow. The biggest threat may emerge from recent Thirsk third Beerwah, while C&D winner Startling sits on an attractive mark and cannot be dismissed either.

Top Tip: TANJEN (6)
