ATR VERDICT: A 1,000,000 euro purchase at the Arqana May Breeze-up this year, ZANTHOS can go some way to repaying that hefty price tag by scoring on debut for her in-form connections. The booking of Oisin Murphy looks significant and she is preferred to the well-bred Proposal, who may want further in time, as well as Al Qaysiyya, who hails from a yard that has had an excellent record on the July course.

ATR VERDICT: Insanity won this last year for Alan King and is back for more and although the five-year-old can be forgiven his last run, he does have 5lb more to carry in 2025. Dramatic Star is lightly raced and won at Newcastle last October, but the vote goes to CLAYMORE. A former winner at Royal Ascot in the Hampton Court in 2022, he was unlucky in a Racing League contest at Yarmouth last time and the return to 1m4f is certainly in his favour.

ATR VERDICT: DETAIN finished an excellent third behind Camille Pissarro in the French Derby before running flat at Royal Ascot in June. A repeat of his Chantilly form would make the son of Wootton Bassett hard to beat and he's taken to show his true colours. Haatem returns to 1m2f with every chance based on his victory in the Wolferton, while Royal Dubai made a winning debut for Owen Burrows at Newbury and could also shape well.

ATR VERDICT: Prince Of India impressed when landing a warm handicap at Newmarket's July Festival and he must be respected, despite an 11lb rise in the handicap, but it is UP THE PACE that shades preference. The Sands Of Mali colt was picked up late on at Newmarket when going in search of a hat-trick. Connections reach for first-time cheekpieces today and further improvement could be forthcoming, especially now he's back sprinting. Others to note include Flash Harry and Marchogion.

ATR VERDICT: ANTELOPE has performed well in higher grade handicaps since landing a double back in May. That brace included a C&D success and Richard Hannon's charge looks worth another chance back at this level. Masterinthewoods has been in fine fettle over 1m4f since finding the selection too good at Leicester and he could have a say in the outcome, while Boston Run gets a change of headgear and is also noted.

ATR VERDICT: Fluorescence is a previous course winner who was far from disgraced when third in a stronger event at Southwell last month. Although considered, it may pay to side with SUGAR HILL BABE. Lisa Williamson's five-year-old ran with credit to finish fourth at Ascot latest and a 2lb ease in the handicap will do her chances no harm. Frank The Spark sports first-time cheekpieces and is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: This is a fascinating rematch between Royal Ascot-winning stablemates GSTAAD and True Love, as the pair previously met in a May maiden. Gstaad won that Navan race on his debut run before producing a top class effort to land the Coventry Stakes and marginally gets the vote to confirm himself as the leading juvenile so far. True Love readily landed the Queen Mary at Ascot and effortlessly accounted for stablemate Puerto Rico to win the Railway Stakes. Puerto Rico's subsequent Richmond Stakes form ties in with the selection's form, so a cracking race is in store.

ATR VERDICT: Wolfpack is improving with experience and won on his last start at Thirsk, but a mark of 83 seems high enough for his handicap debut when you consider the horse he beat by less than two lengths is rated 10lb lower. Abundance is after his hat-trick and looks a player despite an added 5lb, but TRANSPARENT may be the one. Beaten less than a length when third on his first start after being gelded, he looks the best handicapped here with any improvement.

ATR VERDICT: Kensington Palace heroine Miss Information didn't fare as well at Newmarket next time but she remains of interest back here, as does Urban Lion, who was last seen finishing fifth in the Royal Hunt Cup. However, a chance can be taken on EBT'S GUARD. The four-year-old posted yet another solid display when second in the Golden Mile at Goodwood latest and compensation could await him provided this doesn't come too soon.
