ATR VERDICT: This could be the day for the 85-rated CHARLES FORT. He raced over a similar trip on debut at Fairyhouse and his runner-up berth can be viewed in a better light after the winner finished fourth in a Group 2 at Goodwood. Aidan O'Brien's colt was subsequently third in the Curragh and fourth at Gowran Park over further, and sets the standard. A step up in trip looked on the cards for Strike Zone after he kept on for third over 5f in Navan, so he has to rate a threat. Unionville attracted strong support in that maiden and showed up well for a long way before finishing fourth. There is likely to be more to come from him.

Top Tip: CHARLES FORT (3)

ATR VERDICT: There is one of these handicaps in PINAR DEL RIO. Kieran Cotter's charge has a couple of runner-up finishes this season to advertise his chance and cut in the ground is an obvious bonus to him based on his results last year. Colter Bay finished well to win a maiden by a short head over C&D and that form has worked out well so he is a contender on his handicap debut, with Adam Browne-Souza claiming again. Jon Riggins has dropped down to a dangerous mark and it would be no surprise to see a big run from him. Send Harry was a solid third in his last couple of Curragh handicaps, while Dontspoilasale, Kilmood Susan and Rosato will have their supporters.

ATR VERDICT: JOSH'S JOY is trending the right way to get off the mark on her third outing. She went off favourite for her debut in Leopardstown and ran freely before coming home third behind a winner who has since taken a Group 3. She then showed good improvement to be pipped by a head in another visit to Leopardstown, which should have her primed for this assignment. River Ara made 300,000gns at the sales and ought to come on from an opening sixth at Leopardstown in July. Nautic Star began her career with a fifth in a good fillies' race at the Curragh, which was notable. Newcomers Amenita and Solana Beach are worthy of market checks.

ATR VERDICT: LORR'S GIRL was successful over the course and distance in September of last year and was beaten by just half-a-length on her latest visit here. The daughter of Kodi Bear recently finished fourth at Leopardstown and a 2lb drop is likely to aid her cause. The winner of this very contest 12 months ago, Distillate is sure to have plenty of supporters after she registered a sixth career success at Laytown on Thursday. In truth, a case can be made for many others in this competitive affair, with handicap debutant Little Boo Thing, dual winner Starting Monday and Bellewstown fourth Draiocht a few for the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: FIXATION came in for good support on his debut for current connections at the Curragh in June and while disappointing on that occasion, he since caught the eye at Leopardstown. Finishing strongly to take second at the Foxrock venue, he looks open to further progress. A runner-up on both starts to date, Hellorhighwater is sure to have plenty of supporters and has the beating of the re-opposing Naples, Daler and Chester Nimitz. The highest rated of those with a mark, Ben Lawers should appreciate this drop in class, after finishing last of nine in a Listed contest at Killarney on his latest start. With Ryusei Sakai aboard, it'll be interesting to see how Eichan San fares in first time cheekpieces, while Roscommon runner-up Tina's Charm and John Murphy's Sigliosa are others of note.

ATR VERDICT: An eye-catcher on her penultimate start at the Curragh, BURFORD BEAUTY gets the nod in this competitive affair. The Gavin Cromwell-trained three-year-old was a never nearer sixth and had subsequent winners both behind and in front. Starting off now in handicap company, upped in trip to a mile and fitted with a first time tongue strap, it'll be interesting to see how she fares. A dual winner in the UK, Toy Soldier looks the pick of Maurice Ahern's trio, with the local handler also responsible for top-weight Lough Leane and Perry Mason. Down to a mark of 70, Verhoyen warrants the utmost respect, while others for the shortlist are Deuteronomy, Zaraahmando and Medieval Night.
