ATR VERDICT: RODEO chased home a subsequent winner when filling second place on his racecourse bow at Market Rasen in June. That experience could prove to be vital and Donald McCain's gelding appears the safest pick. Lucky Diamond is closely related to plenty of winners and is arguably the pick of the newcomers, although Trigg and Hopeless Dancer should not be discounted.

ATR VERDICT: Airside sets the standard with an official rating of 73 and is of considerable appeal back in a maiden, while market support for newcomer White Deer would have to make him of interest. However, preference is for ATTENTION SEEKER. Harry Eustace's charge made little impact on his debut but he wasn't dismissed in the betting that day and, now hooded, it would come as no great surprise were he to take a step forward.

She's 3lb worse off with the runner-up, but she was in command towards the finish and is likely to progress further. Shetakesthegold took home the silver medal here a fortnight ago and ought to be in the thick of things once again.

ATR VERDICT: RICARDO PHILLIPS, Fighting Poet and Foinix are all bidding for a double, but preference is for the first-named after his Leicester triumph. The Henry Candy-trained four-year-old only has a 1lb higher rating to contend with and could kick on now. Fighting Poet travelled powerfully when scoring comfortably over 1m2f here and won't have any problems with this step back up in distance, so he rates as the main danger.

ATR VERDICT: Sea Thrift showed more on her handicap bow when second over 2m4f here and is an interesting contender stepping up in trip. However, CHIEF BLACK ROBE finished well clear of the third when filling the runner-up spot over C&D and is just 2lb higher. With a similar performance, he will prove hard to beat. Great D'Ange is another to watch out for.

ATR VERDICT: Kranjcar is sure to have his supporters after supplementing his second course success here with victory over this trip at Lingfield. However, a further 5lb penalty might open the door for TENBOB TOMMY. The four-year-old was far from disgraced in fifth in a warmer event over a mile at Newbury and the assessor may have been kind to drop him 1lb. This is just his second handicap outing and he could have more to offer. Silent Flame completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Orange Diamond appeared to idle when just holding on to deny Royal Rhythm over C&D. A 6lb rise is unlikely to prevent another bold display, but it could be worth taking a chance on GHASHAM. Dan Skelton's new inmate has posted several creditable efforts in defeat over hurdles this year and a change of scenery could help eke out the necessary improvement. The returning Rock On Tommy merits respect as well.

However, he hasn't always been the most reliable when breaking from the stalls and it could be worth chancing HAVANA GILA. Harry Eustace's filly lurks on an attractive mark and a rain-softened surface may enable a return to form. Court Of Session is also worth a second look dropping back in distance.

ATR VERDICT: Having scored in a canter on his stable bow for James Owen at Fontwell recently, it's difficult to get away from SHANTOU LUCKY. The eight-year-old escapes a penalty for winning that conditional jockeys' event and he is sure to prove a warm order to follow up. Diamond Geezer proved more competitive on his second-placed handicap bow at Uttoxeter back in November and may serve the most resistance to the selection, ahead of Sassified.

Long Handicap: Rogue Endeavour 8 - 5

ATR VERDICT: Having proved a different proposition since racing with cheekpieces, BARNSNAPE BOY could be capable of completing a hat-trick. Jim Boyle's charge made all over C&D 15 days ago and scored with enough in hand to suggest that an 8lb hike isn't unduly harsh. Unico arrives on the back of a solid third here and, off an unchanged mark, may serve the most resistance to the selection, ahead of Dreambird Dolly.
