ATR VERDICT: Intosomethinggood appeared to find 2m too sharp when finishing fifth at Chepstow last month and an improved showing is forecast over the extra half-mile. However, KNOMOREDIAMONDS came home in splendid isolation on his return to action in a Hexham handicap and, switching to novice company, there could be more to come. Market support for hurdling newcomer Tormund Giantsbane would be interesting, while Lost Frequencies is still open to improvement.

ATR VERDICT: Having tasted defeat only once in five outings over fences last season, TELEPATHIQUE ended her campaign with a Listed victory at Huntingdon. Lucy Wadham's charge got the better of subsequent Mares' Chase runner-up Brides Hill and she should take all the beating if returning in the same heart. Paggane arrives on the back of a close-up second over hurdles at Chepstow and is feared most, ahead of Apple Away.

ATR VERDICT: PIC ROC looked unlucky when stumbling and unseating his rider at Worcester recently and a first chase victory could be on the horizon. The seven-year-old posted some good efforts in defeat last season and he should take plenty of stopping if completing. Greyval arrives on the back of a respectable fifth in the Silver Trophy at Chepstow and she could give the selection most to think about, with Billy Boi Blue next best.

ATR VERDICT: KAPAL LAYAR progressed throughout last season and ended the campaign with an impressive win in a handicap at Perth in April. That form has worked out well and the six-year-old may have enough improvement left to come to defy a 9lb rise on his return. Siog Geal won a valuable Grade 2 handicap at Newbury when last seen in March and is another to note. Personal Ambition and Florida Dreams complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: La Lolita won at Ludlow 10 days ago and has to be respected, but a 7lb penalty is a concern. With that in mind, preference is for SCAVENGERS REIGN, who showed ability in bumpers earlier in the year and was only narrowly denied on her hurdling bow over C&D. Sumatran Tiger returned to obstacles with an encouraging fourth at Stratford and is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: HANDSTANDS found significant improvement when switched to fences last season and put in a career best when beating subsequent Arkle winner Jango Baie in the Scilly Isles at Sandown in February. He was badly hampered when pulled up at Aintree on his sole subsequent start and Ben Pauling's gelding can make amends on his return. Resplendent Grey won the bet365 Gold Cup when last seen and could prove to be the main threat, ahead of The Kalooki Kid.

ATR VERDICT: PURE CARBON may have been comfortably held when second on his chasing debut at Chepstow a few weeks ago but it was still an effort full of promise. That recent run could give the six-year-old an edge because most of his main rivals are making their returns. That includes Rumoursareflying, who won at Wetherby when last seen in March, and the unexposed Boston Boy.

ATR VERDICT: VAL DANCER made a winning seasonal debut in this contest last year prior to landing the Welsh Grand National. He's 6lb higher than for that Chepstow success, but Mel Rowley's eight-year-old could prove even stronger this term and looks one to keep on the right side of. O'Connell enjoyed plenty of success in staying chases last season, culminating with a victory at Sandown and a second in the Eider. He's marginally preferred to Inis Oirr and Jet Legs, who are closely matched on recent running here.

Long Handicap: Fox's Socks 10 - 1

ATR VERDICT: Braganza Bay hasn't raced since landing last year's renewal, but cannot be easily ruled out off only 2lb higher. Geordie Night scored at Uttoxeter in May and there may be more to come from him off his current mark, but LELANTOS could prove the one to side with. Nicky Henderson's charge showed strong signs of a return to form when runner-up at Hexham last month and the combination of this extra yardage and first-time blinkers could see him back to winning ways.

Top Tip: LELANTOS (8)
Watch out for: BRAGANZA BAY (9)
