Long Handicap: Maybella 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: Mark Loughnane won this last year and attempt to repeat the feat with Mbappe. Third on his last couple of appearances, he can go well but preference is for the hat-trick seeking JAZZ SCENE. The son of Too Darn Hot likes a battle and is hard to pass once he gets to the lead, as shown by his pair of neck victories at Southwell, and an extra 3lb may not stop him. Super Hit returns to this grade and could also have a say.

Long Handicap: Wistmans Prince 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: KNIGHTSBRIDGE showed more than enough on his handicap bow here last month to suggest there might be improvement to come, especially dropped back in trip. The five-year-old challenged for the lead turning for home before his stamina ebbed away and the assessor may well have been generous leaving his mark alone. Don Rafael is 2lb higher than for his C&D success last November, while Kopa Kilana is expected to bounce back from his latest effort at Fontwell.

ATR VERDICT: Gallic Melody is the only member of the field who boasts racecourse experience after finishing down the field in a Huntingdon bumper. He might be able to use that to his advantage, but PLANTERS PUNCH makes plenty of appeal on paper and is expected to have been well schooled at home. Aqua Bleu and Dakota Star are others for the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: So Alex showed some improvement to come home third in a first-time hood at Lingfield, but he will have his work cut out to get the better of HARD ENDEAVOR. A beaten favourite when third at Newmarket and Doncaster, if he can be ridden nearer to the early pace, he could make it third-time lucky. Loraxed is related to a winner in Sweden and might prove best of the rest, despite his lack of experience.

ATR VERDICT: D'jo Dela Barriere arrives seeking a hat-trick of victories after being left to come home alone on his return to chasing at Ludlow, but a 3lb rise asks more of Evan Williams' gelding. GRIS MAJEUR proved too strong for Redbridge Rambler, also at Ludlow, and the manner of that success gave the impression he may well have further improvement to come.

ATR VERDICT: Sarab Star has the potential to step forward again on his handicap debut following his C&D victory in August, when he returned from just over 11 months off the track. Real Gain was sent off favourite for the Cambridgeshire and is interesting dropped in trip. The vote, though, goes to CHANCELLOR, who has had a wind operation since struggling in a Listed contest at Newmarket in May. The well-bred son of Kingman has also been gelded, which may further aid his cause. The Wizard Of Eye and Back In Black are others likely to be competitive.

ATR VERDICT: RIVIERA WALK faced a couple of stiff assignments after winning on her debut at Sedgefield. She then hit the woodwork on her seasonal return/hurdling bow at Chepstow last month and, if able to race more amenably, can score over timber at the second attempt. Peter's Last Deal showed ability in bumpers last term and is one of the more appealing options, while newcomer Montemares heads the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: West Wind Blows, the 2023 Caulfield Cup runner-up, makes his first appearance in almost two years and it will be interesting to see what the market expects of him. High Stock may well step forward from his fourth at Goodwood, with the rise in trip a potential source of improvement, but the unexposed SHADER gets the vote. Third in a handicap at Haydock in May, the Gosdens' gelding won a novice contest here in September of last year and appears capable of better on just his fifth career outing.

ATR VERDICT: Fergal O'Brien has his string in fine form and could gain further success courtesy of SUN ART. The six-year-old broke his maiden tag at Ludlow when last seen during the spring and, in a race lacking depth, he wouldn't need much more to defy a penalty. Market Rasen bumper winner Constantinian must enter calculations now switched to hurdles, as must the class-dropping Romany Brown.

ATR VERDICT: TEUMESSIAS FOX won the Rosebery here at the end of March before returning to this venue and finishing third in the Magnolia. The six-year-old hasn't been so effective in three runs on turf since, but has dropped to a mark just 1lb higher than his last success. The Glen Rovers won this prize 12 months ago and commands respect, despite being 19lb higher and not having run since February. Crystal Mariner, Haku and Gaassee appeal most of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Flash In The Pan benefited from a step up in trip when causing a 50/1 shock over C&D last month and, with further progress likely, a 3lb rise could be lenient. However, a mark of 112 proved no issue for DOCTOR KILDARE at Bangor last week and Sam Thomas' gelding escapes a penalty for that success so is the one to beat. Prince De Juilley is also noted.

8 (8)		641431	DANDY G BOY (IRE) 19 CD ch g Dandy Man - Dawaa	3 9 - 2p	Edward Greatrex W Greatrex	66

ATR VERDICT: DANDY G BOY has been successful twice since joining Warren Greatrex, most recently over C&D last month, and the steadily progressive son of Dandy Man holds outstanding claims once more. He gets the vote ahead of Eve Johnson Houghton's new recruit Troy Story, who could be revitalised by a return to this venue having been beaten a neck over track and trip last November. Red Mirage can chase the pair home.

ATR VERDICT: UNTIL DAWN was described as unsteerable after finishing last at Wolverhampton but if she keeps a straighter course, she has every chance. She has won twice over this trip, at Newcastle and here, and placed off her current mark so if she behaves herself, she has every chance. Ziggy's Triton is one to consider on his C&D second and although not at that level in two races since, he is hard to overlook. Toolatetonegotiate also has claims, but may need to come down the handicap to win again.

ATR VERDICT: My Dad Tom showed plenty of improvement to come home a three-quarter-length second at Yarmouth and with just 1lb more now, he has to come into calculations. Empress Olivia has a win to her name over shorter at Ripon in August and she could sneak into a place, but THANOS gets the vote. Repeatedly denied a clear run when runner-up as favourite at Newcastle, he might repay his followers here off bottom weight.

ATR VERDICT: OPHELIA GRACE won as she pleased at Southwell on her second start, coming home five lengths clear, and then ran into a decent sort at Beverley where the soft ground didn't seem to help her chances. Back on the all-weather, she may prove good enough to successfully concede weight to her rivals. Capitalization sports first-time cheekpieces as the 260,000-pounds breeze-up purchase attempts to win at the fifth attempt. He may get the better of Bassenthwaite in the race for the places.

ATR VERDICT: Zoustellar is bred for this trip as a daughter of Zoustar and although inexperienced, she is well worth a market watch for any signs of confidence. Diamond Aura showed some promise when third on her only start, but she was beaten close to seven lengths here and will need a step forward to get the better of LOLABELLA. Fourth at Leicester after weakening late on, if she improves for the race as hoped then she could score at the second attempt.

ATR VERDICT: Darn Hot Gallop is a newcomer to note for James Tate, with plenty of winners in her pedigree. Okiru is also worth considering as a son of Blue Point out of a Dawn Approach mare, but experience can count at this level and that points to DEPORTED. Ollie Sangster's colt stepped up on his debut fourth with a neck second at Kempton when he was headed close home, and a repeat of that may be all he needs.

ATR VERDICT: Mashaan would go close if he could rediscover some form, but his best days might be behind him at the age of seven. Scenario finished second off this mark on her final start for Jack Jones and if Tony Carroll can freshen her up, she could go well but the hat-trick seeking BLUE JAY WAY gets the nod. He arrives at the top of his game after wins at Catterick and over C&D, and gets on well with apprentice Ethan Tindall.

ATR VERDICT: Red Walls knows his way around this track, with 59 Wolverhampton starts for five victories, and he showed signs of a return to form when fourth over shorter last week. He could hit a place, but is yet to win over 7f and MINTANA may have the edge. She held her form well throughout last year and can only improve for her first start in 11 months when fifth at Bath in September. My Boy Jack and Filey Beach are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: In a contest with plenty of in-form options, it might pay to side with JAX EDGE, the winner of two of her last three starts and improving all the time. The surface seems irrelevant to the daughter of Cable Bay, with wins on turf and twice over this C&D, and although she needs a career best off this mark, she may have more to offer. Papa Cocktail, Rosenpur and Zoulu Chief all have to be considered dangerous.

ATR VERDICT: Crest Of Light has to be of interest having won here in April off just 2lb lower and if a first-time visor brings him back to that level, he is hard to ignore. Youarenotforgiven turns out under a penalty after a C&D triumph, but only won by a head and the added 4lb might find him out. BINTALINA has run well without winning in better races and, dropped back in trip in first-time blinkers, she could come home in front.

ATR VERDICT: SAM'S XPRESS carries a 5lb penalty in the hunt for his hat-trick after a two-and-a-half-length victory here when he made all. If that race hasn't taken too much out of the five-year-old, he can win for the sixth time. Gustav Graves is a five-time C&D winner who was second to the selection last week and can give him most to do, with Azucena another to take into account.

Top Tip: SAM'S XPRESS (1)
Watch out for: GUSTAV GRAVES (5)

ATR VERDICT: Broadstone ran on to finish fourth over 1m2f at Redcar before being disqualified and if he takes to the all-weather and the mile and a half at the first attempt, he could go well. Sir Laurence Graff carries a penalty after a Lingfield victory, but he is yet to win over this distance and KHANGAI is preferred. Twice a C&D winner, with one off this mark, he may get the chance to bring his stamina into play.

Top Tip: KHANGAI (1)
Watch out for: BROADSTONE (6)
