ATR VERDICT: Zarakerjack was well beaten into second behind a promising type at Kempton and could step forward to have a say, but there are a few interesting French recruits in this and the one who appeals most is THEWOODCORNER. The three-year-old won a bumper at Saumur in March and has since joined the in-form Nicky Henderson yard, so it would be no surprise to see him make an instant impression over timber. Kaldoun Des Rocs and Pourquoi Pas Papa are also of interest.

ATR VERDICT: Keep Running showed his well-being when second over the smaller obstacles at Fontwell on his return and has to be respected back over fences. Krak is worth a second look on his chasing bow, along with Mon Champion, but NORTHERN AIR gets the nod. A lot more was expected from Dan Skelton's mare when only fourth at Carlisle last month, but this is just her second start for the yard and she could bounce back.

JCB Hydrogen 'Chasing Excellence' Beginners' Chase (GBB Race) (Class 3) (4YO plus)

4		32169-2	JOYEUSE (FR) 23 BF gr m No Risk At All - Virfolette	6 10 - 12	N de Boinville N J Henderson	140

ATR VERDICT: All of these have claims, but marginal preference is for BRENTFORD HOPE. Harry Derham's charge was well held when fourth on his chasing debut at Cheltenham last month, but that was still a promising effort given that it was a Grade 2 event. Joyeuse bumped into a useful mare at Bangor and she should not be discounted. Beat The Bat may be a bigger threat than Mirabad, although the latter has the benefit of a recent outing over hurdles.

5		1/12-1	TORMUND GIANTSBANE (IRE) 33 D b g Mount Nelson - Roc N Roe	5 11 - 2	Harry Skelton Dan Skelton	-

ATR VERDICT: After making a winning hurdling debut at Chepstow, The Blue Room looks well worth his place at this level for the Olly Murphy team, but it's hard to oppose NO DRAMA THIS END. An impressive winner in this class at Cheltenham last month, the five-year-old could have lots more to offer on just his second outing over the smaller obstacles, and he looks a novice hurdler to watch this season. Tormund Giantsbane could be anything and is far from out of it either.

6		66463-F	PEPE LE MOKO (FR) 31 b g Saint Des Saints - Jolie Menthe	7 10 - 7p	C Gethings Mrs J Williams	114

ATR VERDICT: ROYAL JEWEL represents last year's winning yard and arrives on the back of a fine second at Ascot. The consistent six-year-old scored at Newton Abbot prior to that and can make the most of this drop in class. U Cant Be Serious made a winning chase debut over C&D on his return to action and there looks to be more to come from him. He's preferred to Donnacha, who will be sharper for an outing at Ffos Las in October.

4		4F232-3	SALVER (FR) 18 b g Motivator - Salve Evita	5 11 - 4	Caoilin Quinn G & J Moore	147

ATR VERDICT: Doyen Quest readily accounted for Quebecois at Exeter a month ago, but he had race fitness on his side that day and the latter may be able to reverse that form here. That said, preference is for LAURENS BAY, who progressed well over hurdles last season and won the EBF Final here in March. Jamie Snowden's six-year-old only had one rival to beat on his chasing bow in October, but did so readily and he looks the type to continue to improve. Salver struggled against Lulamba at Exeter but cannot be written off.
