ATR VERDICT: GALACTIQUE struggled to make an impact in a Grade 2 at Cheltenham when last seen in November, but his two previous victories at Fontwell suggest that a mark of 117 should be workable on his handicap debut. His stablemate The Bellhop could prove to be the main danger following his own impressive success at Fontwell. Any market support for Bibe Mus on his debut for these connections should be noted, while Superkap is another to consider.

Top Tip: GALACTIQUE (3)

Watch out for: THE BELLHOP (4)

ATR VERDICT: Although foiled in his follow-up bid, Lingfield scorer GATINEAU PARK lost little in defeat when conceding 7lb to a subsequent winner at Wincanton. The six-year-old should take all the beating if performing to a similar level and gets the vote over Tashkhan. Brian Ellison's inmate arrives on the back of a respectable third in a Grade 2 at Haydock and is likely to be involved. Out Of The Woods is the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: In another wide-open renewal of this valuable contest, marginal preference is for KAKA'S COUSIN. The six-year-old took a big step forward when readily winning at Kelso a month ago and, given that the second has subsequently filled the same position at Grade 2 level, a mark of 126 may underestimate his ability. Scorpio Rising won a similar event at Windsor in January and is likely to be in the mix once again. Laguna Beach is a handicap debutant to note, while Draco Malfoy completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: KAKA'S COUSIN (6)

Watch out for: SCORPIO RISING (3)

ATR VERDICT: Successful in three of his five outings over fences, One Mill Harbour shaped better than the bare form over an extended 2m4f here last time out. The drop in distance looks ideal and he isn't taken lightly, but NETYWELL is a shade more compelling. The top-weight returned to form with a fair fourth over C&D and a 2lb drop in the ratings may prove fruitful. Dance Thief could fare best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: Having won the last two renewals of this, Go Dante has to be respected and a wind operation since his last run may help his chances. That said, preference is for MONDO MAN, who was fourth off this mark in a very competitive handicap at Ascot before Christmas and has subsequently bolted up in a maiden hurdle at Plumpton. Knickerbockerglory failed to fire last time but is a player based on his second to Go Dante over C&D in December, while Afadil was third that day and is another to consider.

Top Tip: MONDO MAN (17)

Watch out for: GO DANTE (4)
