ATR VERDICT: OURSIN was the facile winner of his last two starts and he has stacks of potential to kick on now he tackles handicap company. Given the first of those success came 310 days after his late introduction as a juvenile in December 2024, it's safe to assume the Charlie Hills-trained colt can go well fresh. Fellow last-time-out winners Al Durry, Celeborn and Clouds Hill command respect, but Alcarath takes a drop in class and could be a bigger threat if building on his Newmarket reappearance.

Top Tip: OURSIN (2)

ATR VERDICT: Andrew Balding bids for back-to-back wins in this race with the attractively-bred PURE GRIT, who could well be the answer. A son of Pinatubo whose price tag rose from 90,000gns as a foal to 230,000 euros as a yearling, it seems safe to assume he is held in high regard and looks the pick of the yard's pair. Menhaal, Wilbur and God Given Talent are other expensive purchases to monitor in the betting.

ATR VERDICT: Amiloc arguably improved on his King Edward VII victory with high-class efforts in defeat in the Irish St Leger and Breeders' Cup Turf to end his three-year-old campaign. However, marginal preference on this occasion is for RAHIEBB, who was only beaten a neck into second in the St Leger at Doncaster when last seen in September. The son of Frankel could make a big impression in these types of races this season. On the pick of his form from last year, Furthur is another who could go well.

Top Tip: RAHIEBB (6)

ATR VERDICT: POINT OF LAW gave the odds-on Del Maro a big fright at Yarmouth and although the winner didn't exactly boost the form in the Chester Vase, the third won a competitive handicap at Ascot last week. The Royal colt is bred to be smart and can make it second-time lucky. The form of Hatteen's comeback second at Nottingham is also working out, although he was a few places in arrears of Glory Road at the same venue last autumn and Ralph Beckett's charge makes his first appearance since that promising debut.

Top Tip: POINT OF LAW (8)

Watch out for: GLORY ROAD (3)
