ATR VERDICT: MISTER SKY BLUE has filled second place twice in three starts this year and the application of first-time blinkers can help Gemma Tutty's gelding to go one better on this occasion. Barmyblade also hit the crossbar on his most recent outing and is likely to be the main threat, although Stormy Pearl and Golden Prosperity should not be dismissed lightly.

ATR VERDICT: Versatile's third in a novice handicap at Southwell three weeks ago suggests that he is likely to go well back in maiden company. That said, preference is for SHOW YOUR HAND, who has finished a close second in two bumpers in recent months and that form gives him a big chance on his hurdling bow. Trouville and Faithful Guardian are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: HARES BREDTH got off the mark at Redcar 11 days ago and a 5lb rise may not be enough to stop Tim Easterby's progressive gelding from following up. Concert showed more when third at Newcastle last time, despite being a beaten favourite, and she should not be discounted. Others who make the shortlist are Go Lockers Go, Celtic Arrow and Simba's Pride.

ATR VERDICT: Second in a similar event over C&D a few weeks ago, the David Pipe-trained PURPLE OWL just about sets the standard in an open contest. Drombeg Lad was well held on his return here recently but is a player based on the pick of his form last year, while Dunstall Star bumped into a useful prospect when claiming the silver medal at Warwick.

ATR VERDICT: BLAZING SAINT took a big step forward when winning on his handicap debut over 2m at Southwell in May and a 4lb rise for that success may vastly underestimate this unexposed five-year-old. Al Mootamarid is likely to be in the mix if repeating the level of form shown when third over C&D two weeks ago, where Both Of Us was two lengths behind in fourth.

ATR VERDICT: Juan Les Pins has seemingly forgot how to run a bad race and Mick Appleby's consistent nine-year-old is expected to be bang there at the business end again. Indian Run showed more when second at Windsor and commands respect, but NOVELLO LAD is taken to complete the hat-trick following a couple of ready Doncaster triumphs over this distance. He has the bit between his teeth this year and can continue on his merry way.

ATR VERDICT: Artiste D'ainay made every yard of the running when scoring by just over three lengths at Southwell on his latest outing and holds an obvious chance in his bid to complete a double. However, ROXBORO RIVER bounced back to form when filling the runner-up spot at Bangor last Friday and a reproduction of that performance might be good enough. ATR VERDICT: SCANDI NOIR shaped nicely when third on her debut at Cork and can open her account. The Minzaal filly stayed on behind Ballinea Star and that form looks strong now with the winner landing a Group 3 contest at the Curragh last Saturday. Her main dangers here could be from the newcomers. Joseph O'Brien's charge Alwaysanangel is one to note. The Harry Angel filly is a full-sister to six-time winner Yorkshire and cost 75,000gns at the breeze-ups. The Ger Lyons-trained Anglesea Bridge is another to consider. The son of Soldier's Call is a half-brother to a winner in France.

ATR VERDICT: IMPERIAL CULT goes well at this unique track and the C&D winner arrives here in fine form chasing three wins on the spin. George Baker's charge has impressed at Lingfield and Kempton and will have no issues switching to turf. Oj Lifestyle also won on his latest outing at Brighton when appreciating the drop back to this trip. He is noted along with Hello Cotai and Mrembo.

ATR VERDICT: LADY KELLY ran really well on her second handicap outing at Down Royal and can open her account. The Sioux Nation filly made the running and was collared late on over 7f. She showed plenty of pace and dropping to six could prove the key. I'm Spartacus was a cosy winner on his penultimate run here, but didn't help himself by hanging on his last visit. He looks capable of a big run again if keeping straight. Monastere was a big price when runner-up here and if he can repeat that performance, he's another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Wise And Wonderful is improving between runs for a top yard and commands respect in her bid to make it third-time lucky, but SHEMIYLA STAR is preferred. Charlie Johnston's colt probably surprised his connections a little when finishing a neck second at 14/1 on his Pontefract debut and he can only improve for that experience. Bullrider is the most interesting of the two newcomers going to post.

ATR VERDICT: Angel Ang sprung a 33/1 surprise when making a winning introduction at Wolverhampton and should mount a bold bid, despite his penalty. Soldier's Echo changed hands for 45,000 pounds as a yearling and warrants a market check, but the one who appeals most is HARRY'S POP. Dylan Cunha's colt took a step forward from his debut seventh at Windsor when fourth at Chester and could progress again.

ATR VERDICT: Symbol of Hope is a seven-time course winner who would be a player if reproducing the form of his third in a classified stakes over C&D two starts ago. Connections of Hidden Verse reach for first-time blinkers in the hope of bringing out some improvement, but SOUTHBANK only found one too good at Lingfield on his latest outing and this looks a good opportunity to go one better.

ATR VERDICT: MONKS MEAD is a consistent performer at this level and that includes a third over 1m2f at Lingfield last time. This drop in trip may suit the five-year-old and he appears to be the safest pick in an open event. Recent Ffos Las second Knightmare should not be underestimated, while Letsbeatsepsis has the ability to go well in a race of this nature.

ATR VERDICT: It is very hard to oppose the unexposed SWIPED, who had plenty in hand when getting off the mark over C&D and a 7lb rise may not be enough to stop him from following up. Post Rider showed more when third at Goodwood and she could prove to be the main threat to the selection, ahead of Naval Ensign and Nakaaha.

ATR VERDICT: WE RIDE AT DAWN put in a career best when a length second over 1m2f at Windsor and, based on that evidence, the three-year-old could take some stopping from a 3lb higher mark. Lakota Chief has shown some ability in novice/maiden company and any market support for him would have to be noted on his handicap debut, while similar comments apply to Campeona.
