ATR VERDICT: SHAZANI benefited from the return to 6f when just holding on at Doncaster following a string of consistent events at the same venue. Despite a 3lb rise, there is every chance he can progress again dropping to the minimum distance. Ingleby Archie has been running well all season and commands respect after being dropped 1lb for his latest fifth at York, while Call To Action is another with strong claims.

Top Tip: SHAZANI (9)

ATR VERDICT: MR MOONSHINE has been knocking on the door with a pair of narrow defeats since going up in distance. Beaten a short-head into second at Hamilton and a neck into third at Chester, the application of first-time cheekpieces are likely to aid his cause and he can get his head in front now. That Darn Cantor is steadily improving and is capable of being in the mix, while Wardlaw is expected to bounce back from a lacklustre effort at Doncaster.

ATR VERDICT: SAXON GRACE has been heading in the right direction since stepping up in trip at the start of the month. Having finished third at Hamilton, the three-year-old ran out a comfortable winner at Redcar on Saturday and a 6lb penalty might not be enough to stop her from following up. Harswell River is likely to return to form after her latest effort at Ripon, while a drop in trip may suit Royal Sizzler.

ATR VERDICT: Luker's Tipple had little difficulty in completing a double over timber at Sligo recently and merits consideration on his chase bow. However, KILLEEMORE LAD found only a 124-rated rival too strong on his most recent outing at Roscommon and his experience could prove invaluable. Galway Festival winner Tell Us This is heading in the right direction, although a 4lb penalty demands another career best.

ATR VERDICT: Kaaranah has won four of his last six starts at Wolverhampton and the veteran seemingly reserves his very best for that venue. With that in mind, a chance can be taken on BARBURY BOY, who had been improving before a lacklustre Sandown effort, which can be forgiven because he did miss the break on that occasion. Booziebrunch is also noted.

ATR VERDICT: ALJOON was far from disgraced on his racecourse bow before taking a step forward to fill the runner-up spot at Catterick. Jack Jones' gelding should have no issues switching to the all-weather and can use his experience to negate a wide draw. It would come as no surprise were Calendar Boy to improve on his debut effort, while newcomer Huwa Baree makes some appeal.

ATR VERDICT: CAPTIVE BEAUTY went desperately close on her handicap bow at Wolverhampton and with the likelihood of more to come, she can defy a 2lb rise in the handicap to go one place better. 6f course winner Elvetham is worth another crack back up in distance and Ffos Las scorer Lerwick makes plenty of appeal, given that Hope Regan takes 7lb off his back this time.

ATR VERDICT: Chloe Lyons got a good tune out of Magna Grecia filly PURE PASSION when landing a similar event at Yarmouth and she is very much worth keeping onside, especially at this level. The relatively consistent My Mate Mackley has to enter calculations in a race of this nature, whilst Zaltalla, Ridger and C&D runner-up Dr Ali all have claims too.

ATR VERDICT: NESWICK went under the radar when beaten less than a length into third over C&D on her debut, but punters will have taken note of that performance and she gets a confident vote here. Shangri La has proven consistent in her career so far and is expected to be thereabouts again, but so might Dove Tale if a first-time hood can work the oracle after being too keen when third at Kempton.

ATR VERDICT: Each of these remain open to varying levels of improvement, with nursery debutant VIKING BARBIE edging the vote. Although underwhelming on her latest fourth at Beverley, a reproduction of her previous runner-up effort at Sandown could enable a breakthrough victory. Catterick scorer South West is heading in the right direction and Richard Hughes' charge is feared most, ahead of Secret Rival.
