ATR VERDICT: ONE OF THE BOYS went close on his return to action at Kempton before a commendable third at Wolverhampton. That form has a solid look to it, with the winner following up since and the runner-up proving competitive in handicap company, and first-time cheekpieces may further aid his cause. Wuood is entitled to step forward from his Newcastle second in March and is respected, along with Cercis.

ATR VERDICT: Ray Dawson teams up with 16-length Doncaster scorer REEM RAK for Roger Varian. That bloodless triumph came in a three-horse field and although she will need more off 10lb higher, the penny definitely appears to have dropped now. Hello Friend intrigues upped in trip for her handicap debut and could get involved but Dojin is preferred for second, with a hood employed to help her focus.

ATR VERDICT: Having recently continued her upward trajectory by following up a breakthrough Epsom triumph over C&D, EABHA is one to keep the right side of. The daughter of Space Blues scored a shade cosily and a 5lb higher mark may not halt her progress. Nursery debutant Kodi Bear Light shouldn't be judged too harshly on her 19th-placed finish in the Super Sprint at Newbury and, stepping up in distance, she's feared most, ahead of Princess Ivy.

ATR VERDICT: Pipily appreciated a greater emphasis on stamina when narrowly denied over C&D last month and a 3lb higher mark shouldn't prevent her from going close again. However, she may have to play second fiddle once more as the hat-trick seeking DEL CORSO appears to be a step ahead of the assessor. The son of Dubawi has twice landed the odds at Nottingham with the minimum of fuss and is sure to prove a warm order. Femme Beauty can chase the pair home.
