ATR VERDICT: INIS MOR failed to land a blow when well beaten in the Yorkshire Oaks last month, but she took the silver medal home in the Irish Oaks at the Curragh previously and that is the standout piece of form on offer. The booking of Ryan Moore further aids her cause and she looks the one to beat. Without Prejudice is unbeaten in two appearances, most recently scoring under a penalty at Windsor, and she could improve for this step up in trip. Park Hill fourth Prizeland completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: INIS MOR (7)

10 (8)		411	SUGAR YES PLEASE 48 D b f Mohaather - Alezan	2 9 - 2	Charles Bishop Eve Johnson Houghton	102

ATR VERDICT: Light Of Dawn relished the step up to this distance when victorious in the Prestige at Goodwood and commands respect. Sugar Yes Please won the Sweet Solera to make it two wins from three starts and is another to take seriously, but SPIRITED GESTURE is an exciting prospect. The Kingman filly struck by three lengths to remain unbeaten at Newcastle and, as a sister to Group 2 winner Calyx, she could have any amount of improvement to come.

7 (2)		232-606	WILD DESERT (IRE) 47 b c Too Darn Hot - Winters Moon	3 9 - 2	Billy Loughnane C Appleby	102

ATR VERDICT: Having found himself too far back when finishing a never-nearer second in a Group 3 at Goodwood in July, this could prove a suitable opportunity for TALK OF NEW YORK to get back on the scoresheet. Charlie Appleby's colt had previously finished a fine third in the St James's Palace Stakes at Royal Ascot and a similar performance should suffice. Persica was all out to repel reopposing runner-up The Lost King in the Superior Mile at Haydock and they may serve the most resistance to the selection.

Watch out for: PERSICA (2)
