ATR VERDICT: SHERBORNE is expected to have sharpened up for a recent outing at Ffos Las, his first since April, and he should be able to occupy a prominent position in this small field. His best form is on this sort of ground and with the Joe Tizzard yard going well, a big performance looks assured. Fern Hill took this prize home 12 months ago and is a player with race-fitness on his side, while Charles Ritz goes well fresh and is also noted.

Top Tip: SHERBORNE (3)
Watch out for: FERN HILL (5)

ATR VERDICT: CAP RICOCHET traces back to Desert Orchid - and carries the same colours as the legendary grey - so it isn't surprising that he has burst into life since going chasing. He defied a 6lb rise to complete a quickfire Market Rasen brace and can continue on his merry way. Helios Allen was third behind him on the latest of those outings, but is only 6lb better off and was fourth at Lingfield last week. Ben Case's nine-year-old still looks the primary threat, ahead of Walk The Plank.

Top Tip: CAP RICOCHET (2)

ATR VERDICT: Recent Tinahely point-to-point winner MY LIFE BE LIKE can score for trainer David Christie. Although yet to win on the racecourse, the five-time point scorer ran a big race when fourth in a strong hunter chase at Down Royal last December. Coming from a renowned academy, he is sure to be well prepared for this assignment and could be hard to beat. Hearts And Spades, who looks to have improved since switching to point-to-points, has to be of interest on his return to the track. Winner of nine of his 11 starts between the flags, the Ian McCarthy-trained gelding arrives in excellent form. A lightly-raced six-year-old, Everest The Brave has the potential to be anything.

ATR VERDICT: CAYMAN DANCER was too free on his Plumpton comeback, but had a hood removed for his next start at that circuit and was given a well-judged ride by Freddie Mitchell to win with plenty up his sleeve. On that evidence, a 7lb penalty shouldn't inconvenience him and he can force recent C&D runner-up Gallivanted to settle for the same position. Virtual Rock failed by just a neck to make it three from three since joining the Des Donovan team so he has to be given maximum respect.

Top Tip: CAYMAN DANCER (4)
Watch out for: GALLIVANTED (6)

ATR VERDICT: Point-to-point winner HERON HILL can land the finale for trainer Gavin Cromwell. While his task was made that bit easier with his main market rivals failing to complete, the four-year-old did all that could be expected of him between the flags and is sure to know his job ahead of his Rules debut. Similar comments apply to Chanson Du Jury. Although only winning by a head in his point, he has since been bought by leading connections and will be well prepared for this assignment. Kilbeggan second Bellahill is noted too.

Top Tip: HERON HILL (4)
Watch out for: CHANSON DU JURY (3)
