ATR VERDICT: Poet's Muse and Stavanger Rose haven't pulled up any trees in handicaps but this won't take much winning and they're entitled to be thereabouts dropped into novice company. CORREEN is the unknown quantity over timber having finishing a narrow second between the flags last month. The Irish raider is related to a couple of winning hurdlers and wouldn't need to be anything out of the ordinary to make a successful debut under Rules.

Top Tip: CORREEN (1)
Watch out for: POET'S MUSE (3)

ATR VERDICT: James Owen looks to have found SCOTTO a good opportunity. The dual bumper winner returned from a four-month break with a solid third at Huntingdon on his hurdling bow and any improvement on that could make him hard to beat in this company. Mister Realistic is one to note now hurdling for the first time, while the bumper winner Claim The Throne is another to keep an eye on.

ATR VERDICT: ROCKONLIAM continued his progress with a decent second at Cheltenham last month and forecast ground conditions will hold no fears for the gelding in here. The selection must shoulder joint top-weight but Patrick O'Brien takes 5lb off his back and that might be crucial. Karl Des Tourelles was successful in a rated novice chase at Galway latest and is still 5lb below his hurdles mark back handicapping, while On Your Way, who finished further behind in third that day, is entitled to be thereabouts as well.

Top Tip: ROCKONLIAM (2)
Watch out for: KARL DES TOURELLES (1)

ATR VERDICT: Ballyknock point-to-point winner CEASAR'S BALL can make a winning start to his career under Rules. Although only scoring by a neck, the Great Pretender gelding quickened up smartly from the back of the last to get up close home. Having subsequently joined champion trainer Willie Mullins, the four-year-old can retain his unbeaten record. Point-to-point runner-up Water Mill ran a big race on his Rules debut when chasing home a subsequent Grade 3 winner in a Down Royal maiden hurdle and has to be of interest on his first bumper start. Doctor Grimwig is a newcomer to note from a leading stable.

ATR VERDICT: Capable Flat handicapper COCK AND BULL was well backed when winning at Thurles on Thursday and is taken to defy a 7lb penalty. Officially rated 90 on the level, he was entitled to cash in off a lenient hurdling mark of 99 on that occasion, but this step up in trip could unlock even more improvement. King Of The Greys is 10lb higher than when bolting up at Fairyhouse but remains of interest along with Jackmoon, who wasn't beaten far into third at Punchestown back in July.

Top Tip: COCK AND BULL (12)
Watch out for: KING OF THE GREYS (7)
